

SWAPNIL GOHIL, PSY.D.

DAVENPORT PSYCHOLOGY

1608 OAK ST
SARASOTA, FLORIDA 34236

PHONE: (941) 702-2457 • FAX: (941) 866-0936
PROVISIONAL PSYCHOLOGIST LICENSEE PPY326

CURRICULUM VITAE

EDUCATION

Regent University – Virginia Beach, VA August 2015 – August 2021
Psy.D., Clinical Psychology • Full APA Accreditation Swapnil Go
Expected Graduation Date: May 2021

Rutgers University – New Brunswick, NJ September 1998 – June 2003
B.F.A. Acting/ Directing, minor in Psychology
Graduation Date: May 2003

SUPERVISED CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Centerstone Behavioral Hospital and Addiction Center July 2020- July 2021
2020 26th Ave E • Bradenton • Florida • 34208

Position: Doctoral Psychology Intern (Medical Psychology/ MAT Rotation)

Supervisors: Robert Boxely, PhD

Responsibilities: Conduct Level of Care, Biopsychosocial, and psychiatric assessments for patients in detox, acute crisis, (addiction) residential treatment, and Adult Mental Health Hospital. Engage with patients and provide psychotherapeutic services for patients in the addiction center, adult mental health, detox, and crisis acute services. Provide outpatient therapy through telehealth portals for patients in outpatient substance services. Clinical Psychopharmacology treatment planning and consultation with Crisis Center, Adult Psych Hospital, Detox unit, and Addiction Center. Work with the psychiatric team in detox pharmacology for substance dependency and medication management. Engaged in ETO (Emergency Treatment Order) for patients in active crisis. Provided therapy for patients diagnosed with infectious diseases, substance dependency, and neurocognitive disorders.

Allcare Medical Center July 2020- July 2021
5860 Ranch Lake Blvd STE 200 • Lakewood Ranch • Florida • 34202

Position: Doctoral Psychology Intern (Medical Psychology/ MAT Rotation)

Supervisors: Matthew Nesetti, M.D., PhD

Responsibilities: Work within an integrative behavioral healthcare team to provide patient care in a primary setting. Conduct psychoeducational battery, Emotional Animal Support Evaluation, Capacity Evaluation, and neurocognitive evaluations for dementia or traumatic brain injuries. Provided therapy for patients diagnosed with infectious diseases, substance dependency, primary care, and neurocognitive disorders. Worked within skilled nursing facilities to assist in medication reviews, provide therapy for various medical diagnoses, patient advocacy, identifying adjunct services for the patient, and providing therapy for chronic pain. Clinical Psychopharmacology treatment planning and consultation within a primary care setting and skilled nursing facilities. Working with the psychiatric team within the memory clinic to address in medication changes or the need of metabolic panels.

EVMS Glennan Center for Geriatrics

July 2019- June 2020

825 Fairfax Avenue • Norfolk, VA • 23507

Position: Doctoral Practicum Clinician*Supervisors:* Jennifer Flaherty, PhD & Hamid Okhravi, MD

Responsibilities: Provide neuropsychological assessments in a hospital to a geriatric population with suspected or confirmed memory problems from a range of neurocognitive impairments and conditions such as dementia and Alzheimer's. Work within a multidisciplinary team of physicians, nurses, and medical residents. Provide cognitive rehabilitation and brain training. Provide services to a broad range of patients with diverse educational, ethnic, and socioeconomic backgrounds. Engage patients' caregivers in a support group to provide psychoeducation, coping strategies, and resources. Receive regular supervision from a licensed neuropsychologist.

Psychological Services Center

August 2015 – June 2020

1000 Regent University Dr. CRB 188 • Virginia Beach, VA • 23464

Position: Couple Therapist*Supervisor:* Dr. Jennifer Ripley

Responsibilities: Conduct couples therapy utilizing the Hope-Focused Couples Approach (HFCA) and attend weekly group supervision meetings. Conduct peer supervision with new couple therapists.

Central State Hospital

August 2018 – June 2019

26317 West Washington St • Petersburg, VA • 23803

Position: Practicum Clinician*Supervisor:* Lacie Biber, Psy. D.

Population Served: Acutely mentally ill adults referred from local hospitals, prisons and correctional facilities, individuals adjudicated not guilty by reason of insanity, as well as adults who meet criteria for civil commitment.

Responsibilities:

- Co-conducting adult competency and sanity evaluations
- Administering and scoring assessments, and writing reports to include: Competency, Sanity, assisted in Initial Analysis of Aggressive Behavior (utilizing HCR-20)
- Conducting individual and group therapy (DBT, Prosocial behaviors, and Symptom Management), and individual restoration
- Interdisciplinary treatment team member

Psychological Services Center

August 2017 – July 2018

1000 Regent University Dr. CRB 188 • Virginia Beach, VA • 23464

Position: Service Provider*Supervisor:* Dr. Judith Johnson

Responsibilities: Conduct individual therapy with adults, adolescents and children with various presenting problems. Create and implement treatment plans. Administer at minimum 5 comprehensive psychological assessments as well as interpret and integrate psychological test results to create assessment report with diagnosis. Attending weekly individual and group supervision. Make case presentations once per semester.

Virginia Beach Court Services Unit

August 2017- February 2018

2425 Nimmo Parkway, Building 10A, Virginia Beach, VA, 23456

Position: Service Provider

Supervisor: Dr. Cassandra D. Page, Licensed Clinical Psychologist

Responsibilities: : Conduct psychosocial histories and psychological screenings that include the Brief Symptom Inventory (BSI) and Substance Abuse Subtle Screening Inventory (SASSI). Refer clients for full psychological assessment to the Psychological Services Center. Communicate with Probation Officers and court officials regarding assessment results.

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Vice President of Marketing

January 2012 – May 2014

University Imaging Center (Radiology Firm)

RESEARCH INTERESTS AND EXPERIENCE

Dissertation: Prevalence of Personality Disorders within the actor population

Principal Investigator

January 2018 – present

Chair: Dr. Anderson Rowan

Committee Member: Dr. Judith Johnson

Responsibilities: Investigating the prevalence of personality disorders within the thespian population.

Hope Couples Project

Clinical Assessment Specialist

September 2015 – June 2017

Regent University

Supervisor: Dr. Jennifer Ripley

Responsibilities: Observe live couple sessions. Collect and record data on the couple for each session and support the counselor(s) as needed outside of session. Participate in weekly group supervision and regular didactic trainings. Participate in providing observations, thoughts and suggestions on the couple being observed.

POST DOCTORAL EXPERIENCE

Davenport Psychology, Sarasota and Venice, Florida

October 2021 - Present

Supervisor: Dr. Charles R. Davenport

Responsibilities: Provided couples counseling, anxiety therapy, depression therapy and psychological testing to individual of all ages. Psychological services were provided to patient in Sarasota, FL and Venice, FL. Completed Gifted Assessments for students whom attend Pine View school and other Sarasota County School Board schools.

TEACHING AND ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Regent University Psychology Department

Guest Lecturer

February 2016

Supervisor: Erynee, Shatto Psy.D.

Responsibilities: Provided a lecture on the challenges of working with refugee children in clinical settings.

RELATED CLINICAL EMPLOYMENT

Christian Broadcasting Network January 2017 – Present
Virginia Beach, Virginia
Position: Prayer Counselor
Responsibilities: Facilitated callers through telehealth capabilities, directed the plan of action of the necessary emergency response. Provide short-term phone support

Doctoral Shadow May 2003
Gloucester, New Jersey
Placement: Correctional Facility
Supervisor: Dr. Prabhakar Patel
Responsibilities: to observe the dynamic of therapy and substance use within a correctional facility.

Doctoral Shadow June 2005
Mumbai, India
Supervisor: Dr. Ravindra Tagore
Responsibilities: Observed rotations of Children mental healthcare; ages 6-17

PROFESSIONAL PRESENTATIONS

Boxley, D. & Gohil, S. (2020, September). Trauma and Mental Health. Psycho education for the Sarasota Police Department. Sarasota, Fla.

Crocker, S., Miller, V., & Gohil, S. (2016, April). Does gender and ethnicity significantly affect self-compassion and relational adjustment? Presentation given in partial fulfillment of PSY 714: Statistics course requirements at Regent University, Virginia Beach, VA.

Gohil,S., Alexander, U., Eckenroad, E., Ryan, A. P (2018, June). Burnout, vicarious trauma, and self-care. Didactic training presented Christian Broadcasting Network Social Media Team, Virginia Beach, VA.

Gohil,S., Ryan, A. (2018, April). Vicarious trauma and self-care. Didactic training presented Regent University Center for Global Justice Law Interns, Virginia Beach, VA.

Miller, V., Gohil, S., Ripley, J., Sells, J (2018, April). Impact of time on participant's self-efficacy and hope within Grace and Hope Couples China Study. Poster session presented at CAPS (Christian Association for Psychological Studies), Norfolk, VA.

PROFESSIONAL CONFERENCES AND TRAINING SEMINARS

Institute of Law, Psychiatry, and Public Policy, University of Virginia (ILPPP)- Certification in Insanity and Competency Evaluations

CAPS - Christian Association for Psychological Studies April 12 – 14, 2018
Mark Yarhouse, Psy. D., Stephen J. Sandage Ph.D., and others.

National Physicians Council for Healthcare policy (NPCHP) March 18 – 19, 2018
Hosted by Senator Pete Sessions, Chairman of Rules Committee of Congress
Various seminars on the dynamics of insurance policy on mental and medical healthcare